

WT Associates Ltd

90 minute-eSafety & Cyberbullying Workshop For Staff and Parents

With technology and the Internet being very much part of the youth of today, it is vital that we understand what the risks are, in order that we can educate and keep children and young people safe. This workshop will provide staff and parents with the opportunity to understand what the risks are and importantly what children, schools and parents can do to stay safe online.

Who should attend?

- All staff
- Head Teachers
- Lead Child Protection Officers
- Governors
- All parents

Area covered in training:

- Understanding the risks of the Internet
- Understanding Social Networking Sites
- Understanding chat facilities
- Tips for keeping safe Online

- No max candidates
- Certificate of Attendance
- Courses run by highly experienced leading child protection trainers
- £400 + vat per session